

Learn secrets to successful feral pig control

with feral pig authority, Dr Jim Mitchell*.

When and where:

ARAMAC

Tuesday 9th May

Harry Redford Function
Room

BOULIA

Thursday 11th May

Boulia Sports Centre Cafe

WINTON

Friday 12th May

Winton Neighbourhood
Centre Training Venue

Who should do it:

Anyone who wants
effective and efficient feral pig control

What you'll learn:

- How to site, make and bait traps
- The keys to successful baiting campaigns
- When to shoot and how to shoot
- Feral pig behaviour and habits
- Recording and using data to improve your management campaigns
- Legislation and obligations
- Tips and tricks to increase your likelihood of success

What else:

- Smoko and lunch provided
- Numbers limited
- Bookings essential
- Secure your spot by phoning DCQ on 4658 0600 or, after hours, call Vol Norris on 0427 427 966.
- If you prefer, you can book online at www.dcq.org.au

Jim Mitchell is regarded as an international authority on feral pig management issues and techniques. With 32 years' experience in practical field work and feral animal research, he is a specialist in the development and implementation of feral pig management and control techniques, and is the author of numerous best practice feral pig management handbooks as well as scientific papers and reports. Jim's highly informative feral pig control workshops are widely known and appreciated, as is his practical, hands-on approach.*

All workshops run
8.30am - 12.30pm

Smoko and lunch provided.

No charge.

Queensland Government

Australian Government

Funded through DCQ by the Queensland Feral Pest Initiative and the Australian Government